Continued from page one field to score Acee. After this final test the Legion pitcher really went to work and retired the side. These Legion batters began to boom with Rudeps leading off with a triple, followed by Crider's single, scoring Hudspeth. The Legion catcher, Van Landingham slammed a double to center field, scoring Crider. At the end of the third inning the score was knotted at five all.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER From Washington, D.C. The following is a summary of the news from Washington, D.C. The following is a summary of the news from Washington, D.C.

WASHINGTON—I do not believe that the Congress is going to permit the Army to retire General James H. Van Fleet. I have urged the Secretary of the Army to reconsider the order placing General Van Fleet on the retirement list. The Florida Senator Dick Russell, as Democratic Armed Services Committee Leader, calls one of the military geniuses of our time should be kept on active service because this nation has such a great need for him. General Van Fleet is an excellent soldier, a vigorous field soldier in the prime of his usefulness. He is the only General of his rank who has led his troops in the field during the dangerous days of communist aggression in one area then going on to great success in fighting communism in Asia. Since world communist aggression is our one great foe, it seems to me incalculable that this great man is not to be used further against the Russians who know, respect and fear him for what they know he can do.

I know General Van Fleet wants to retire and no one denies his right to the pleasure and relaxation of private life in Florida but he is a great patriot and I know his sense of public duty would cause him to respond to continue in service. I hope President Eisenhower who was a classmate in West Point will give Jim Van Fleet his call during these dangerous days of communist aggression and treachery.

CAPTAIN HILL NOTES: I am grateful for the many letters and telegrams I received approving my fight against the creation of a new Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare. This super-bureaucracy is not desired by our people and I would much rather have the agency less pretentious and longer on payments to our old folks. I have suggested to Secretary of Agriculture Benson that some of the millions of pounds of butter in cold storage warehouses be made available for distribution to state and county eleemosynary institutions. Senator Lyndon Johnson has been working me overtime lately with special studies the third with two walks, a stolen base and a couple of errors to score three more runs in the third. Rotary proved to be too much for the Lions when they scored six runs in their half of the third. After the third inning both teams settled down to some real ball playing with fancy fielding on both sides.

Curfew was called at 9:30 with only five and a half innings played and Rotarians winning by a 11-7 score. Be sure to be at Memorial Field Friday night for some more big 1 league ball playing and yell for your favorite team. See you Friday.

Local Rotarians offered the group entertainment following the "Home Sweet Home" dance with a special picture show at the Hugo Theatre, to be followed by dancing at the Country Club. A breakfast will be available at the Club before the hosts call time on the revellers.

Mrs. Joe Cherry has consented to the arrangement of messes of preparing and serving breakfast for the party.

The thoughtfulness and graciousness of the Rotarians invitation is matched by the enthusiasm and grateful acceptance by the students and it all is to the comfort and pleasure of members, who naturally worry about night driving in these days of 165 to 185 horsepower motoring.

TOURISTS SPEND 20% OF STATE'S RETAIL PURCHASES IN 1952

Tourists and visitors to Florida spent an estimated $589,000,000 through retail outlets in the State last year.

This amount was spent in retail stores of all types, eating places, filling stations, etc. However, expenditures by tourists for rooms, hotel rooms, utilities, transportation and amusements are not covered by this total.

The Florida State Chamber of Commerce reported recently. This week's business review of the State Chamber's research and industrial division places the total retail sales in Florida in 1952 at a preliminary figure of $3,250,000,000. The official population of Florida passed three million last year for the first time and had reached 3,400,000 by July 1. On the basis of this population total retail sales would appear to be $1,048 per Florida resident. This figure, however, includes expenditures by tourists as well as by residents.

Nationally, the average citizen spent $991 in retail stores in 1952 and the average citizen in the southeast spent $725. Retail expenditures by Florida residents stood at $858, half way between the national and the southeastern figure. Thus, on a population basis, Floridians spent $2,661,000,000 of the total retail sales in the State in 1952 while the balance, $589,000,000, was spent by visitors.

REV. JAMES N. PURCELL

THIS WEEK'S SERMONETTE SIN AND ITS REMEDY

By Rev. James Purcell

South Bay Baptist Church

Psalm 34:4 Stand in awe and sin not. Commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.

Sin is not a theory, but a stubborn and tragic fact. Sin is more than a mistake, it is a crime. It is the tragedy of the universe, neither natural, normal, or necessary. There is only one thing wrong with the world today, and that is sin. Sin depopulates heaven and populates hell.

God hates sin. He hated it yesterday, he hates it today, he will hate it tomorrow, he will hate it forever. He does not have, he cannot tolerate sin. The Bible in its entirety deals fully and faithfully with the subject of sin. It tells of the glory of man's creation, it tells of his temptations, it speaks of his transgressions. Man was once holy, but fell from that position through pride.

We hear so much these days of what the sinner has in natural gifts, that it might be well for us to know what he does not have. He does not have a clean heart. Jer. 17:9 The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked, who can know it? The horizon of a sinner's life dips at the things earthly. For instance — what shall we eat? what shall we drink? what shall we wear?

Sin produces a moral distance between man and his maker. Isaiah said, you sinners have separated you between you and your God. If it were not for our sins our nature would unfold to God, just as the nature of a child unfolds to its parents.

Sin is moral deformity, how pathetic it is to see a man with a strong body and a weak withered soul. Sin darkens the intelligence and makes a man ignorant of God. The sinner loves darkness, walks in darkness and knows not whether he goes.

Death is hell's currency that a man will receive for a life of sin. Sin is not an accident, it is not a mistake, it is an awful reality. It is the sorrow of heaven, the ruin of earth, and the horror of hell. Sin has wrecked every home that has ever been wrecked, it has broken every heart that has ever been broken. Sin has dug every grave. Sin is the undertaker at every funeral. Sin is the spade that digs every grave. Sin always kills, death always follows sin. Paul said, the wages of sin is death.

Sin murdered the prophets that looked down through the dim vesture of ages and saw the coming One. When He came and was born in a stable and cradled in a manger, Sin followed Him for thirty-three years, and then incited the mob that hung Him on the cross. Yes, sin drove God to an earthly grave. He dropped His head and said it's finished! Salvation had been wrought. His life had been given. His blood had been shed that we might live. There is a hymn that goes like this:

Before the throne my surety stands,
My name is written in His hands.

Friends, this is our hope today. The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth us from all sin. Accept Him now.

ness with God, as evidenced by Christian healing, is the theme of services in all Christian Science churches next Sunday when the subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "DOCTRINE OF ATONEMENT."

The Golden Text is from John 1:3: "That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that we also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ."

Bible references include the following from Psalms (40:8): "I delight to do thy will, O my God; yea, thy law is within my heart."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The scientific unity which exists between God and man must be wrought out in life-practice, and God's will must be universally done."

NEGRO CHARGED WITH SOUTH BAY ROBBERY

Clever detection on the part of Chief of Police R. C. White, of South Bay, assisted by accurate descriptions and observation of Mrs. W. R. Sullivan and James Jackson solved the burglary at the Sullivan home last Tuesday night with the result that Henry Cook, negro, now lodged in jail charged with the offense. At first he denied the theft; but confronted with the evidence of his footprints from a peculiarly marked shoe sole finally admitted the theft and gave a full description of his technique.

He was employed by the U. S. Sugar Company and lived at South Shore Plantation. He had been working in a near-by cane field and made several trips to the plantation. He was seen by the Seminole Fruit Stand operated by Mrs. Sullivan on SR No. 80 and also hung around the house in the evening until he knew the habits of the family.

On the night in question, according to his account, he worked outside until Sullivan returned home from his work at the Sinclair Station operated by Clayton Waters, watched until the family had completed their evening baths and retired to bed on the second floor. He then made entrance by lifting the catch on the window screen with an ice-pick and raising the window. He secured Sullivan's trousers from the closet and took the wallet from a back pocket, extracted the cash amounting to $33 dropped the trousers on a chair, took the money to top and left. The family awoke up stairs, heard nothing and were unaware of the robbery until morning.

Chief White, called to the scene, observed his footprints under the window and leading across the field and the air field deduced that the intruder possibly lived either in the Hudson Quarters or the South Shore Camp. Mrs. Sullivan was able to give a full description of the negro who had been hanging about the fruit stand and James Jackson at South Shore observed the kind of shoes Cook was wearing and that they corresponded to the mark left under the Sullivan window. The arrest was made Friday evening and confession obtained over the weekend.

Cook is a parolee from Everglades Prison Farm having served 10 years of a 50 year sentence on armed robbery charge. It is suspected that he is also the person who has been observed lurking around several other homes and places of business at night recently.

CATTLEMAN ADVISED TO BEGIN MEASURES FOR INSECT CONTROL

The wise cattleman will begin pest control measures in his range herd in spring and repeat them when necessary on through the fall, according to Dr. Leonard Swanson, parasitologist, University of Florida Agricultural Experiment Stations.

"Carrying out an effective pest control program not only is humane, but it also will result in higher beef production than if no efforts were made to control the hornflies and mosquitoes which feed on the cattle during the warm months of the year," Dr. Swanson says.

While no effective sprays have been developed for control of hornflies and deer flies, two bad pests of livestock, there are materials and methods which will control blood-sucking hornflies, mosquitoes, flies, lice, and ticks, and irritating houseflies that attack beef cattle.

Hornflies usually are found on the withers and back or, in rainy weather, under the belly line; heflies (parents of warblers or grubs) attack and lay their eggs on the hind legs near the hoofs; ticks attach themselves to any part of the body; tail lice are found only in the bush of the tail; blue lice are found about the face and neck; red lice are found on the withers and back; long and short nose lice are found on brislet, neck, and under the belly line; and mosquitoes attack any part of the animal's body.

"Inspect your animals frequently," Dr. Swanson advises cattlemen, "and treat the whole herd when you find any or all of these pests on one or more cattle."

He recommends any of these spray or dip formulas for pest control:

(1) Eight pounds DDT wettable powder and four pounds BHC (6 percent gamma isomer) in 100 gallons of water.
(2) Ten pounds toxophene (available 40 percent) in 100 gallons of water.

(3) One gallon toxophene 42.8 percent and lindane 1.7 percent emulsion in 100 gallons of water.
It is important to get complete coverage of the animal with spray or dip. While high pressure sprayers are more effective, knapsack and low air materials.

A dipping vat may be used, but before it is charged with any of the pest control mixture, it should be thoroughly cleaned of residues of arsenicals or other materials.

PLANTING TIME...

Wherever you see new telephone poles being "planted" and rural lines strung, it means service for folks who didn't have it before—service that helps get things done on the farm and in the home.

Every month, Southern Bell is adding about 6,000 new rural telephones. That's the kind of progress we like to report because we're devoting a lot of know-how, materials and money to rural telephone expansion.
